SERVICES AT THE CHURCH

Eulogy by Bishop Leonard—Final Obsequies—Body Is Laid in a Crypt.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 19.—The Nation, State and home city of Senator Marcus A. Hanna bestowed upon him this afternoon their last honors. Funeral services over the remains of the dead statesman were held in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, commencing at 1 o'clock.

Shortly after the noon hour the casket was taken from the Chamber of Commerce auditorium and the funeral procession took up its slow march to the church two miles away. At the head of the column rode a platoon of twelve mounted police, followed by three platoons of Troop A, all mounted on black horses and with swords at carry. The hearse came next and was followed by one hundred carriages carrying the pallbearers and official guests, which included members of President Roosevelt's Cabinet, Governor Herrick's staff, the delegations from the Senate and House of Representatives, members of the Ohio Legislature, city officials and delegations from several civic organizations. Immense throngs of people lined both sides of Euclid avenue from the downtown section to the church entrance. Policemen were on duty all along the thoroughfare and vehicles of every description were kept off the street during the progress of the funeral procession.

When the body and its escort reached the church the edifice was closed to all but those who were admitted by card and members of the funeral party. The eight pallbearers, Gov. Myron T. Herrick, Samuel Mather, J. B. Zerbe, W. J. McKinnin, A. B. Hough, Andrew Squire, Judge W. B. Sanders and C. A. Grussell, all personal friends of the dead senator, in a solemn procession, removed the flower-covered casket from the hearse and, with bare heads, bore it into the church and placed it upon the catafalque in front of the altar. The casket was closely followed by members of the Hanna family. Mrs. Hanna was supported by her son Daniel, J. Pierpont Morgan, the New York financier, was of the family party and escorted Miss Phelps, a member of the Hanna household.

BODY BORN DOWN AISLE.
The body was met at the church door by the officiating clergymen, Rt. Rev. W. A. Leonard, bishop of Ohio; Dr. G. H. McGraw, rector of St. Paul's church; President W. F. H. of Kenyon college; an institution which has been greatly benefited by Senator Hanna's liberality, and Rev. W. H. Jones, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, of which the dead man was a member, who spoke the usual sentences as the body was borne down the aisle. The members of the family took seats near the casket and other friends who had accompanied the remains from Washington were among the mourners.

Immediately following the family and friends came Governor Herrick's staff. Directly behind these came the Washington delegation, comprising Senators Foraker, Perkins, Warren, Fairbanks, Keen, Scott, Beveridge, Kittredge, Cockrell, Martin, McNary and Vestal, and Representatives Grosvenor, Van Voorhis, Southard, Morgan, Buehler, Cassin, Ladd, Gleason, Kyle, Snook, Nevin, Warkock, Gaskin, Gabel, Jackson, Kennedy, Longworth, Weems, Bartlett, Lucknow, Wilson, Gardner, Hanna, Dalzell, Watson, Burke, Currier, Sherman, Hadenburg, McCleary, Hemenway and Caldwell.

The Ohio Legislature and representatives of the National City Federation, Loyal Legion of Honor, Sons of the American Revolution and other organizations followed. When all had been seated the services began. St. Paul's choir chanted the Psalm beginning "Lord, Thou hast been our refuge from one generation to another." President Pierce, of Kenyon College, read the lesson from Luke, chapter 11, verse 1, "Lead, kindly light," a favorite hymn of the senator, was sung by the choir, and then followed an eloquent eulogy by Bishop Leonard.

NOTABLE EULOGY BY

BISHOP W. A. LEONARD

The text of Bishop Leonard's eulogy follows:

"We are gathered together here to-day in this house of God for the last service of benediction over the body of our distinguished citizen and friend, of our beloved friend, The Nation has honored him with his civic function at the capital of the United States, and the wealth of Ohio, by the hands of her Governor, has received him back into her care and keeping; the city has closed its gates about his bier, reverencing his memory and sorrowing at his departure. And now the body which was once the seat of his soul, and which was the seat of his life, is laid to rest in the earth from whence it came, and his soul goes to the Father, who has called him home. It is not the time or place for extended eulogy and praise; such words will be only spoken by those who loved him, and who loved him well, we loved him well, we mourn for him with unfeigned grief, but we can only say that his face no more. But we may each of us go forth into the life of God, and we realize that the world he served is not unimpaired for what he strove after and for what he accomplished."

KEYNOTE OF HIS LIFE.

"And first the universal comment is upon his integrity. This was a keynote in his life. I recall a fine, ringing address he made at Kenyon College last year when the degrees were being conferred upon its graduating class. And the thought of his heart found expression in his eloquent words as he urged upon these men the essential importance of high and pure integrity. It is this word that is longed for upon the stone that marks his long and useful business career. He was not only honest, but he was a man of high character, and his life was a lesson to all who saw it."

A Boston paper says one should be smiling just as he goes to sleep. Perhaps if a certain ONE should be smiling when he goes to sleep he would invoke a similar exercise in many others.

VIOLATORS OF SIDEWALK
LAW MUST PAY PENALTYOne Man Fined and Four New Warrants Issued for Failure to Clean Snow Away.

COUNTY IS IN TROUBLE

A fine of $1 and costs, amounting to $11, assessed against John Reed, a West Washington-street saloon keeper in Judge Walsh's court yesterday morning for failure to clean snow from his sidewalk, and a warrant served on the custodian of the courthouse on the same count give sign of something finally doing in the active enforcement of the city's anti-snow ordinance. Two attempts to prosecute for failure to clean snow from sidewalks were made by Police Court Prosecutor Hack during the heavy snowfalls of January, but both of these attempts proved bootless, as the court ruled against the city in both of them. The fine assessed against Reed yesterday morning was the first penalty ever inflicted against any person for violation of the anti-snow ordinance. The day of its passage to the present.

The Journal's crusade for clean sidewalks promises to bring even better results, as four new warrants for violators of the anti-snow ordinance were served by the police last evening and three more will be put into the hands of the police this morning. Hack for service this morning. These seven warrants include two on well-known politicians of the city, and one on Frank Osborn, custodian of the courthouse, for allowing the snow to remain on the walk on the west side of the county building.

It is said that the city and James McCrossin, marketmaster, each averred that it was the other's duty to see that the snow on the courthouse walk, on Delaware street between Court and Market streets, was cleaned off. The dispute went on, but the snow stayed. In the interval of discussion Albert Schermer, patrolman on the beat, swore out a warrant against Osborn and this was served last evening.

It is thought by the city officials that the moral effect of the fining of Reed and the wholesale serving of warrants, some of which must bring results, will go toward giving cleaner sidewalks and toward educating the people of the city to looking at the anti-snow ordinance in some other light than as a good joke.

"Eleven dollars," said one of them, "isn't much, but it is about twenty-two times the cost of a clean sidewalk."

TRIGGS MUST QUIT

Professor Who Denounced Church

from Faculty.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—The Tribune to-morrow will state that the name of Dr. Oscar Lovell Triggs, instructor in English at the University of Chicago, has been dropped from the list of instructors, who will be notified to-morrow of their reappointment by the board of trustees for a term of three years. After July 1 his connection with the university will cease.

The action of the trustees came as a surprise to Prof. Triggs's colleagues. The consensus of opinion, however, the Tribune will say, is that Prof. Triggs's liberal views and the unusual statements he has made in his literature classes and in public lectures have proved distasteful to the board of trustees.

The statement of Prof. Triggs that brought him most conspicuously before the public was his ranking Rockefeller and Pullman with Shakespeare. Other incidents with added authority for our task and toll since we have noted how worthily he did his duty for others; and we realize that the world he served is not unimpaired for what he strove after and for what he accomplished."

—Was Suspected of Theft.

SHE NOW DENIES STORY

With his arms peacefully folded, a smile on his face, George Lieberherr was found dead in bed last night by his mother at his home at 129 Eugene street. Death was due to morphine taken with suicidal intent. Stephens, who was a wealthy planter, had a few words with Bays yesterday, the negro later securing a shotgun and killing Stephens at close range. The negro then beat the body with the butt of the gun, and made his escape. Bloodhounds were brought on a special train from Lake Village. They readily took the scent and traced the murderer to his father's house, where the negro was found hiding in a well. A mob, several hundred strong, surged around and dragged forth the murderer, who made a full confession. With hands and feet tied, he was bound to a stake in his father's yard. Brush was piled around him, the torch applied, and the man slowly burned to death.

VICTIM IS NEAR DEATH

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

HAMMOND, Ind., Feb. 19.—As the result of a quarrel engendered by so small a matter as pushing a box off the sidewalk, Allie Blood, an employee of the Monon, at Thayer, a few miles below here, lies at the point of death with his head crushed in by a farmer's neckyoke, and Henry Foss, a wealthy Lake county farmer, who died the deed, with a companion who is unknown, has held the Newton county officers at bay for two days and refuses to be taken into custody.

Young Blood and a boy companion were passing a saloon at Thayer, owned by John DeWolf, and playfully kicked a box in the street. DeWolf came out and quarreled with them over it and they offered to pay for it. Foss and his friend came out of the saloon, and the former picked up a heavy neckyoke and brought it with crushing force down on the boy's skull. He dropped to the walk and Foss's companion kicked him as he lay on the ground.

Farmers around the country are greatly incensed at the deed, which tends to increase the mystery. The grand jury probably will go to the cemetery in a body and order the grave opened to-morrow.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 19.—The coroner's jury inquiring into the cause of the loss of the steamer Callam and fifty-four lives on Jan. 8, delivered a verdict to-day finding Captain Roberts guilty of manslaughter and Chief Engineer Delaney criminally culpable. Delaney is severely censured for negligence and incompetence. Captain Roberts is now in southern California.

MITCHELL MYSTERY IS BEING INVESTIGATEDGrand Jury and Prosecutor Have Begun Work on Strange Case
That Baffles Town.

MURDER IS SUSPECTED

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BEDFORD, Ind., Feb. 19.—Today the Lawrence county grand jury began investigating the Mitchell mystery, so designated by Prosecutor Miller, that so far has successfully baffled the officials.

Mitchell, ten miles south of here, was plunged in a state of excitement the night of Jan. 29 at the unusual sight of four men conveying a stretcher through the principal streets, which apparently contained an inanimate human form. A fifth man, with a lantern preceded the party that traversed Seventh street, turning south on this thoroughfare, and then turning east on the street. Not a word was spoken as the strange cortege proceeded on its way and which was followed by a crowd of curious onlookers.

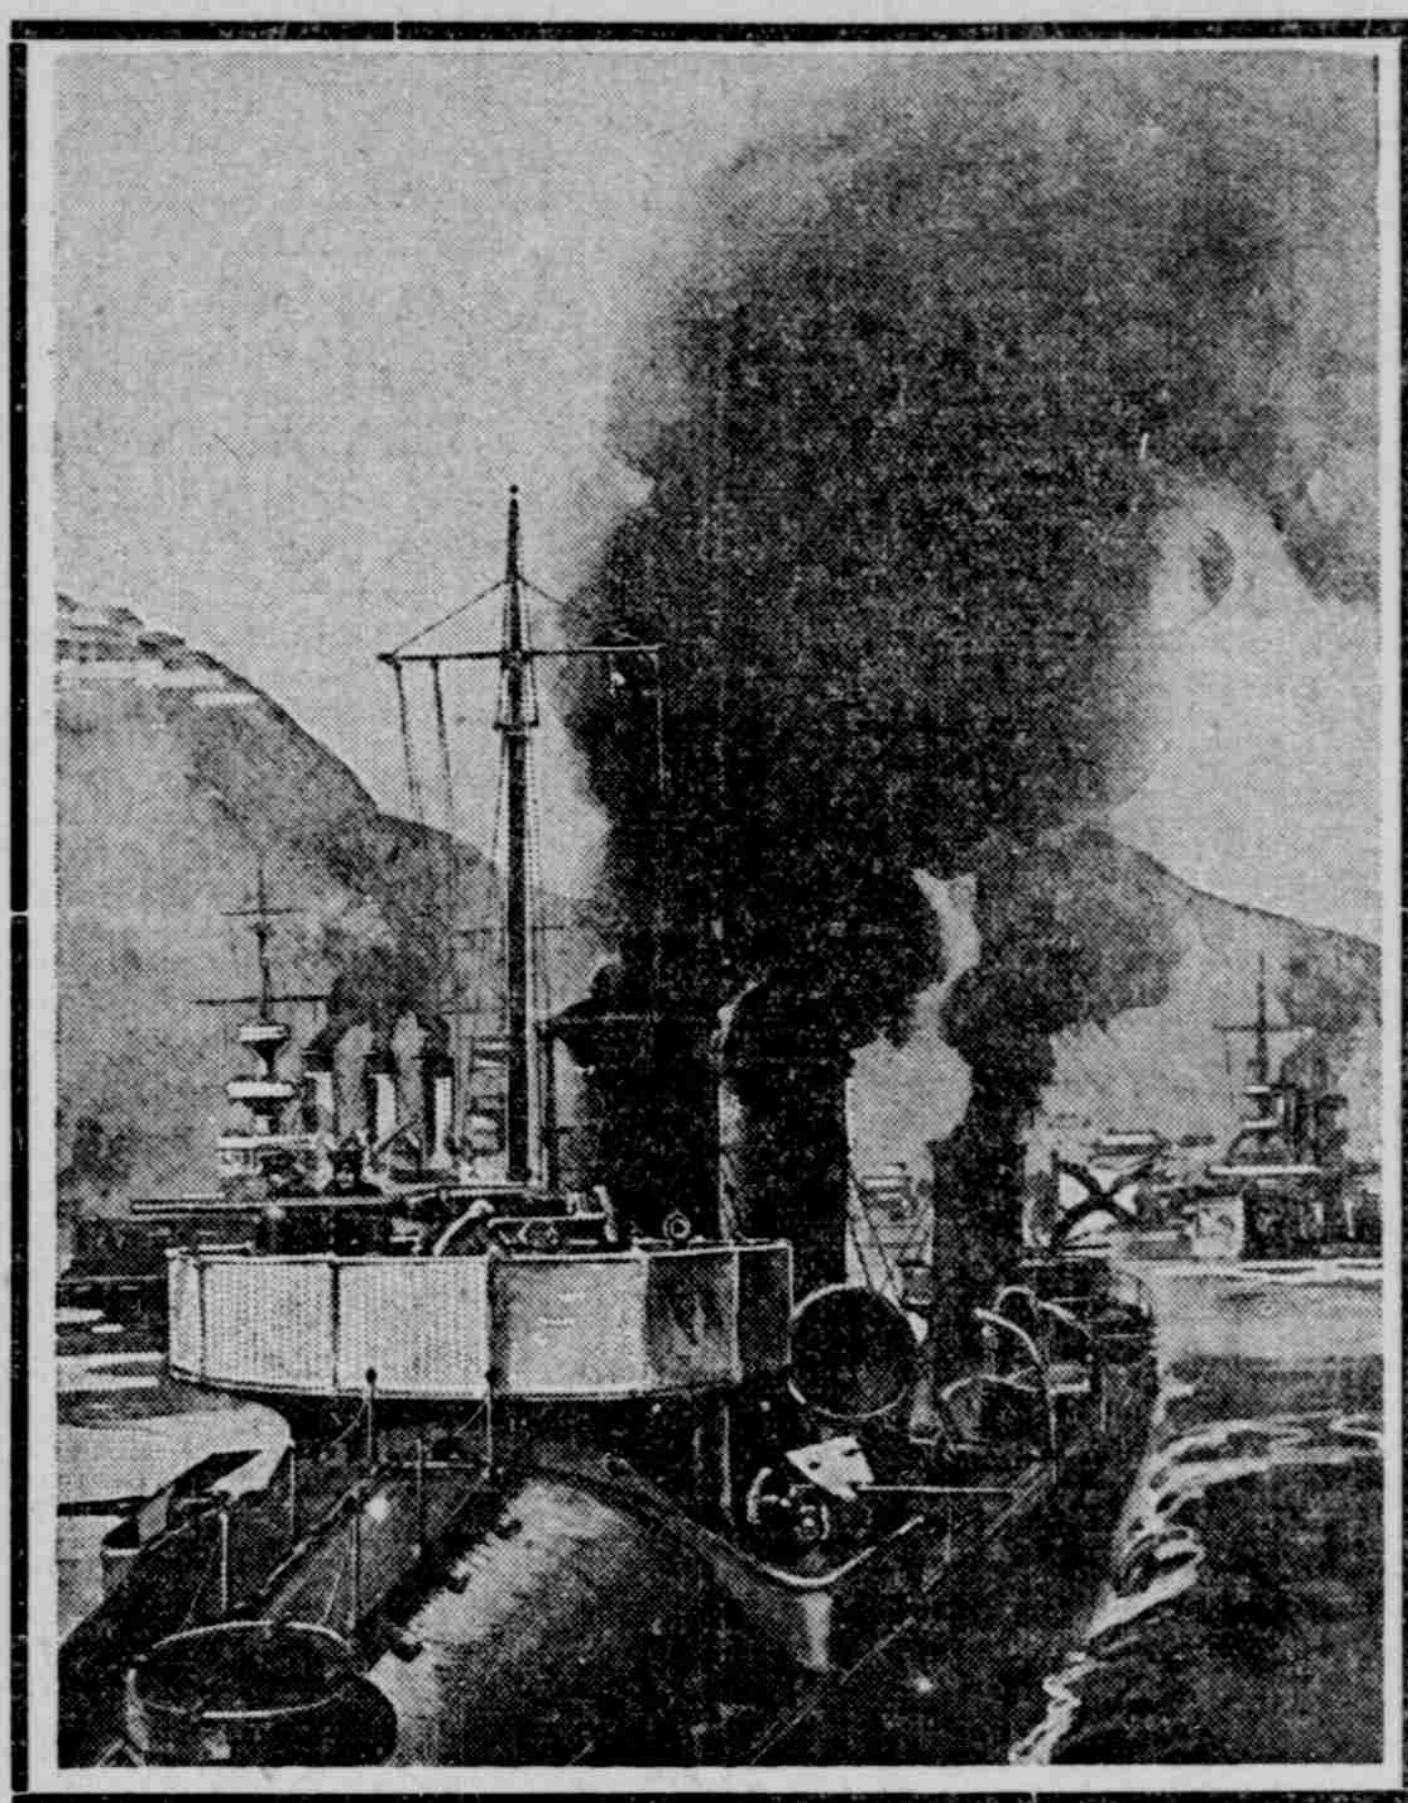

Suspicion was aroused, and it finally dawned on the minds of many that a murder might have been committed. A searching party was organized, resulting in the discovery of a newly made grave in an isolated cemetery south of town. The trustees of this cemetery declared no interment had taken place there, and the excitement increased. Torment Plummer was requested to open the grave, but declined until he had been paid a reward of $100.

The grand jury began an investigation to-day. Eight reputable witnesses were examined. They had watched the strange cortege winding its way through the town, but none had questioned the men in charge of the stretcher.

An official inventory of the city's population failed to show one missing, which tends to increase the mystery. The grand jury probably will go to the cemetery in a body and order the grave opened to-morrow.

Evangelist's Singing Partner to Wed.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Charles Alexander, of Chicago, the singing partner of Rev. Dr. R. A. Torrey, the American evangelist, is reported to be engaged to marry Miss Helen Cadbury, daughter of a millionaire manufacturer residing in Birmingham, says a dispatch to the American from London. Alexander is a Yale graduate.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 19.—In an effort to close up a poolroom that has for a long time operated in the outskirts of Madison, Ill., across the river from St. Louis, three constables, augmented by a posse of citizens and bearing warrants for the arrest of six men connected with the poolroom, precipitated a riot late to-day which resulted in the shooting of seven men. One may die. The wounded:

LEE HARLAN, druggist, probably mortally.

WILLIAM SCHOOLEY, posseman.

EDWARD HARRIS, spectator, not seriously.

EDWARD DOWNS, seriously.

TWO UNKNOWN, not seriously.

Warrants had been sworn out before Justice of the Peace Isenmyer, of Granite City, adjoining Madison, and placed in the hands of Constable John Glass and two other constables, for the arrest of Whitfield Brooks and Eugene Wall, of Granite City, and Thomas Riley, Charles Greenfield, Thomas Maskey and Martin Johns, of St. Louis, charging them with being connected with the poolroom.

After the failure of the Madison county grand jury, which recently investigated the poolroom, to return indictments, citizens took the matter in hand with the intention of having the poolroom closed. Several days ago warrants were issued for State Senator David Nelson, of Missouri, charging him with being a poolplayer and Victor Schuler, charging him with conducting the poolroom and being custodian of the funds. Schuler was arrested yesterday and gave bond of $500 pending a hearing.

The additional warrants were sworn out to-day by Justice Isenmyer, and the poolroom was within and declared they had arrested the operators of the poolroom and were guarding them. Betting was going on as usual at the time. The constables were (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2, COL. 6.)

OGDEN, Utah, Feb. 19.—Two cars of dynamite attached to a work train on the Ogden-Lucia cut-off of the Southern Pacific Railroad exploded with terrific force late this afternoon, at Jackson station, eighty-eight miles west of Ogden, killing about eight miles west of Ogden, killing twenty-four persons, injuring eleven and destroying a large amount of property.

—The Dead—

W. L. HOLLER, messenger, Andrews, Ind.

T. W. BURKE, section foreman, wife and three children.

J. W. BURKE, ex-general foreman.

OWEN DERMODY, conductor, Beaver Dam, Wis.

SIXTEEN GREEK LABORERS.

—The Injured—

LEINA, engineer.

COURTNEY, conductor.

STANTON, engineer.

TAYLOR, telegraph operator, and wife.

SEVEN GREEKS, seriously.

The explosion wrecked everything within a radius of half a mile.

Jackson Station was used principally as a telegraph station, but a number of cars were sidetracked at the place for the accommodation of the workmen and their families. Some of these cars, it is stated, were close to where the explosion occurred. The telegraph operator's house was badly damaged and Operator Taylor and his wife were killed.

The accident was caused by a water train running into the two cars loaded with giant powder. The explosion was so violent that scrap iron and the big steam shovel at Jackson Station was completely demolished. As soon as news of the explosion reached Ogden a special with physicians and nurses and stretchers was hurried to the scene.

Some of the victims' bodies were torn into fragments.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—There was posted to-day in the Corn Exchange National Bank a notice which reads in substance as follows: Employees of this bank receiving a salary of less than $1,000 a year must marry without consulting the bank officials and obtaining their approval."

Officers of the bank stated that their official action was not taken to discourage matrimony under proper circumstances, but that it was foolish for a man to attempt to support a family with an annual income below $1,000. We start young men in as messengers at a small salary and increase it as he shows aptness and ability for the work. Most of them rise rapidly and are paid accordingly. It would be folly for any to marry before they are able to support a wife. We should feel ourselves partly responsible for any misery which might follow if we approved of such a course."

CINCINNATI, Feb. 19.—It was announced last night that Mrs. Hartwell Cabell, aged thirty years, the wife of a prominent attorney, had died suddenly from appendicitis. She had attended a party the previous evening and the announcement was a shock to her friends. The case was reported to the coroner and it has developed that she shot herself, due to the apprehension that she was suffering from grip would develop into consumption. She was a lady of great culture, having been admitted to the bar, not for the purpose of practicing law, but for companionship and assistance to her husband. She formerly lived in Richmond, Va., being the daughter of General Logan, a Confederate veteran. The invalid mother of Mrs. Cabell has been brought here from New Orleans for the funeral. Mrs. Cabell had been suffering for several months.

CHANGE OF COMMANDERS

Prince Kuropatkin to Lead the Russian Army in Far East—
Gen. Pliginskii Report.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—"An American squadron is expected here," telegraphs the Che-Foo correspondent of the morning Post under date of Feb. 19, "and it is reported that the Americans intend to land a force of marines."

"There are rumors of possible trouble with Germany, which claims exclusive rights in Shan-Tung."

"Only three Russian ships at Port Arthur remain intact."

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express asserts that after an interview with the Japanese consul at Shanghai the captain of the Russian gunboat Manjur consented to disarm the vessel and keep her in the harbor of Shanghai until the conclusion of hostilities. This statement, however, is not confirmed by other Shanghai dispatches.

The correspondent at Seoul of the Daily Mail reports that 1,200 Cossacks are crossing the border near Wiju and that Cossack scouts have advanced into Korea as far as Anju.

Cablegrams received here from Shanghai declare that General Ma, who is protecting the borders of Chi-Li province, wires that it is becoming daily more difficult to prevent the Chinese troops at Sin-Ming-Tung from crossing the Tiao-Ho and engaging the Russians employed in guarding the railroad.

The Tien-Tsin correspondent of the Daily Mail supplies a new version of the loss of the Russian cruiser Boyarin, obtained from an officer who was on board the Russian torpedo transport Yenisei. This officer says the day following the Yenisei's catastrophe, Feb. 18, a black storm brought many mines to the surface of the water at Port Arthur. The Boyarin was sent to assist in securing them, but she got caught in the storm and was driven on the rocks and totally destroyed. If this account is correct, the explanation of the official denial that the Boyarin was torpedoed by the Japanese or that she was blown up as a result of a black contact with a Russian mine at Port Arthur.

The statement is published here this morning from St. Petersburg that the Czarina occupies herself every day with ladies of the nobility in preparing Red Cross material for the empire's wounded.

KUROPATKIN TO BE IN

COMMAND OF RUSSIANS

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 19.—War Minister Kuropatkin, who is going to the far East, will be appointed commander in chief of the army operations there and Vice Admiral Makarov, who is now on his way East on a train which is expected to reach Port Arthur in ten days, breaking all previous records, is to be commander in chief of the navy.

Rear Admiral Jessen has been appointed to succeed Rear Admiral Ewald Von Stackelberg, commander of the Vladivostok squadron. Rear Admiral Jessen has the reputation of being a bold sailor who does not hesitate in an emergency. He will leave St. Petersburg immediately.

Although Vice-Admiral Alexeev has been criticized in some quarters, there is no indication that he will not retain the viceroyalty in the far East. It is possible, however, that the active direction of field movements may pass out of his hands.

Grand Duke Michael, the Czar's eldest brother, and heir presumptive to the throne, and several hundred officers, assembled at the Nicholas Railroad station this evening to bid farewell to a number of comrades who left for the front. Intense enthusiasm prevailed among the immense crowd which had assembled and the scene was very picturesque.

Major General Pliginskii, chief of staff to Vice-Admiral Alexeev, has been ordered to telegraph from Port Arthur: "Our scouts report that no Japanese have been seen either at Taon-Chu or Ping-Yang, Korea. The population is indifferent towards us. The ice on the Yalu river is beginning to go out. Natives say that if a high tide comes in five days the ice will begin to drift in from the sea."

The population is indifferent towards us. The ice on the Yalu river is beginning to go out. Natives say that if a high tide comes in five days the ice will begin to drift in from the sea."

Paul Lessar, Russian minister at Peking, has telegraphed that General Li, commander-in-chief of the Chinese army, intends to send 90,000 men from Pao-Ting-Fu to Shan-Tai-Kwan.

RUSSIA REPLIES TO

SECRETARY HAY'S NOTE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Secretary Hay to-day received by cable from Ambassador McCormick the reply of the Russian government to the proposition relating to Chinese neutrality. While the text of the note is withheld at present it is understood that Russia attaches a condition to the effect that acceptance of the proposition is not to be regarded as excluding Manchuria from the seat of war.

It is stated that Japan has consented to accept the Russian proposal, but that the Russian government is not prepared to accompany the Japanese forces in the field as military observers. Not quite so explicitly Russia indicated that she may be able to accommodate some American military observers after March 15.

RUSSIAN SHIPS MUST

RETURN TO KRONSTADT

PARIS, Feb. 19.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Figaro cables that the Russian squadron at Jibuti, French Somaliland, on the Gulf of Aden, has been ordered to return to Kronstadt.

The Russian squadron at Jibuti consists, as far as is known, of the battleship Orel, the cruiser Aurora, the cruiser Dignit Donskoi and a number of torpedo boat destroyers. It was reported from St. Petersburg Feb. 15 that this squadron had been instructed to remain at Jibuti until further orders. It has been suggested that the stopping of these warships at Jibuti might be intended to remove representations, Jibuti being a neutral French port. The volunteer transport Saratoff and four Russian torpedo boat destroyers were reported Feb. 15 at the island of Jebel Zuger, in the Red sea, ninety miles from the Straits
